Having a wedding during Covid?

We realize that during this time, we all need to be flexible – in date changes, varieties of flowers selected and sudden government restrictions. Once your deposit is applied to your wedding, it can be transferable to an alternate date if necessary. 2021 is going to be a busy wedding year, so if you would like to secure your date and Van Belle's as your florist for your special day, you are able to put down a deposit now and then have your personal consultation with us at a later date.
